The petitioner approaches this Court challenging revenue recovery proceedings for recovery of contributions under the Kerala Motor Transport Workers Welfare Fund Act on the ground that no provisional or final determination orders have been served on the petitioner.

2. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the second respondent submits that fresh final determination order would be served on the petitioner after hearing the petitioner. This submission is recorded.

3. In view of the above submission, further proceedings pursuant to the impugned notice shall be kept in abeyance till final orders are passed and served on the petitioner as submitted.

The writ petition is accordingly closed.
